This year it was a unanimous decision that the 1991-92 yearbook be dedicated to Mr. Blaize Anglada.

Mr. Anglada was a teacher at Hancock High from 1985. He was the junior English teacher until 1988 when he became the senior English teacher.

At the beginning of this year Mr. Anglada was taken away from us. He became seriously ill and was hospitalized for a number of weeks.

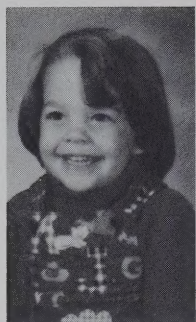

Mr. Anglada's reputation as a good and fun teacher had proceeded him. All seniors have felt the loss in his absence. We miss him and dedicate this yearbook to the memories he created for us.

SENIOR FAREWELL

How do we say goodbye to what we've had?
The good times that made us laugh, will always be ours.
We thought we'd get to see forever, but forever's gone away
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.

We don't know where this road is going to lead
All we know is where we've been and what we've been through
If we get to see tomorrow we hope it's worth all the wait
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.

And we'll take with us the memories to bring back sunshine after the rain
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.

As hard as it is for us to say goodbye, we know we must face our tomorrows and keep our yesterdays forever in our hearts. We the Class of 1992 would like to bid our farewell to Hancock High School forever.
